

Dedham Town Clerk Paul M. Munchbach:

Town Clerk's FAQ's (Page 1)

Q: Is Town Hall Open?

A: Town Hall is not currently open to the public. The Town Clerk's office is essential and will continue to have limited staff available Monday-Friday 8:30-4:30 to process requests and answer phones.

Q: Can I still get a Birth/Death/Marriage Certificate?

A: Yes! Birth, Marriage and Death certificates can still be ordered by mail by sending a written request, check payment and self-addressed, stamped envelope. Each certified copy is $10.

Q: Has the Town Election been postponed? When is the new election date?

A: The Select board has voted to postpone the April 11th Town election to a date still to be determined. A reverse 911 call will be made to announce the new election date once it has been determined by Town Clerk Paul Munchbach. Town Election signs will be updated once the new date has been selected.

Q: Can I still register to vote for the local election?

A: Yes! Under the proposed legislation, residents 18 years and older can register 10 days prior to the new election date as opposed to the usual 20 days prior. Please mail in a voter registration form or apply online.

Q: I am getting married soon, how can I apply for a marriage license?

A: Dedham is not currently making appointments for marriage licenses as Town Hall is closed. If you are a Dedham resident and your ceremony is within the next month please call or email us so we can try to accommodate you. Please note that you need to know when, where and who is performing your ceremony. If you are a resident in another community, please contact your local Town Clerk's office to apply.

Q: I want to vote in the upcoming election, what are my options?

A: There are three options to ensure everyone has the opportunity to vote in the upcoming election. First being voting in person, the Polls will be open 7am-8pm. Second, would be requesting an absentee ballot to be mailed to you. The Absentee ballot application link can be found by clicking here: <https://www.dedham-ma.gov/home/showdocument?id=8616> Finally, early voting by mail only will be available the application will be posted on the town website once they are available.

Q: I haven't licensed my dog yet this year, will I get a late fee?

A: You can still license your dog through the mail by sending in an updated copy of the rabies certificate, payment check ($10 if neutered/spayed, $15 if unaltered) and a self-addressed stamped envelope.

The Town Clerk Paul Munchbach has also extended the due date of licensing until June 31, 2020.

Q: Has the date of Town Meeting postponed?

A: Yes, to a date to be determined in the interest of public health.

Q: How can I drop off State or County Primary Nomination Papers?

A: There are three ways to turn in Nomination papers to get signatures certified. Nomination papers can be turned in through the drop box to the left of the back door of Town Hall, an appointment can be set up by phone for drop off/ pick up or they can be sent through the mail. Please send them to 26 Bryant St. to the attention of the Town Clerks office.

A word from our Town Clerk:

We know how stressful and unprecedented these times are and our top priority is the safety and well being of our residents. Our office's goal is to continue to provide consistent service in a timely manner. Please reach out to us if you have additional questions or concerns.
